

Myofascial Release Seminars Policy & Guidelines for Seminar Attendance

As we prepare for upcoming seminars, we would like to take this moment to inform you of all of the efforts we have made for your health and well-being. We have taken every precaution recommended by the CDC and the State Health Department to protect our participants from COVID-19. Your cooperation is required for our efforts to be successful.

We are encouraging all students to bring their own pens, hand sanitizer and gloves (if wishing to use), masks and massage table and/or vinyl pad/yoga mat that can be disinfected. No linens or cloth material for tables will be allowed in the meeting room. No food items will be allowed to enter the meeting room.

MFR Seminars Staff will have EPA-registered disinfectant sprays/stations and/or wipes available and will continuously wipe down and disinfect frequently used objects/areas in the meeting room.

Temperatures will be taken at the beginning of each day of the seminar for all students and staff. Any student or staff that has a reading over 100.4 will not be admitted into the meeting room. Face masks will have to be worn at all times.

Our seminars are 'hands-on' and students must fully participate in all of the 'hands-on' sessions throughout the seminar. In addition, in order to receive CEUs, you need to participate fully, including all 'hands-on' labs. Requesting to 'observe only' creates uneasiness with other participants and will not be permitted. To fully learn Myofascial Release 'touch' is a necessary aspect.

You must wash your hands frequently, wear the personal protective equipment and follow our safety instructions. Anyone who is experiencing any symptoms such as fever, cough/shortness of breath, or aches/flu like symptoms and/or if you have been in contact with anyone with these symptoms within 14 days of the start of the seminar you will be attending should contact MFR Seminars at 1-800-327-2425 ext. 4 or email seminars@myofascialrelease.com to transfer your seminar funds towards a future class. Your attendance at our seminar is subject to and acceptance of these terms and conditions.
